John Hiatt and the Goners

~~DUUUU~~ DU UUDD

Am E7
 Thank God the Tiki bar is open, Thank God the Tiki torch still shines,
Am Dm7 Am E7 Am E7
 Thank God the Tiki Bar is open, Come on in and open up your mind.

Am E7
 I was out on a leave of absence, From any resemblance to reality,
Am Dm E7 Am
 I felt like a rocket launched to the great blue yonder, From the boys down at Kennedy.

Am E7
 I was driving by his majesty's court hotel, Where the sign said praise his name,
Am Dm E7 Am E7
 I was tired and alone I couldn't see too well, But I think that he was to blame.

Am E7
 Thank God the Tiki bar is open, Thank God the Tiki torch still shines,
Am Dm7 Am E7 Am E7
 Thank God the Tiki Bar is open, Come on in and open up your mind.

Am E7
 There's a full moon over Daytona Beach, There's a full moon in my mind,
Am Dm E7 Am E7
 And my suntan dream is still out of reach, And the strip malls are robbing me blind.

Am E7
 Well his name was Mr. Dale Earnhardt, And he drove the black number three,
Am Dm E7 Am E7
 Now the king is gone but not forgotten, Nor his likes will we ever see.

Am E7
 Thank God the Tiki bar is open, Thank God the Tiki torch still shines,
Am Dm7 Am E7 Am E7
 Thank God the Tiki Bar is open, Come on in and open up your mind.

Am E7
 I know a drink ain't the solution, I ain't had one in seventeen years,
Am Dm E7 Am E7
 But if that Tiki bar was closed tonight, Well I might just disappear.

Am E7
 Thank God the Tiki bar is open, Thank God the Tiki torch still shines,
Am Dm7 Am E7 Am
 Thank God the Tiki Bar is open, Come on in and open up your mind. (Repeat)
